DETAILED ACTION

1. Applicant's election of group I in paper filed on Oct. 16, 2008 is acknowledged. Because applicants did not specifically and distinctly point out the supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election has been treated as an election without traverse; see MPEP 818.03(a).
2. Claims 1-20 are pending in the application. Claims 4, 10, 11 and 20 are withdrawn from further consideration as being directed to non-elected invention.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

3. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

4. Claims 1-3, 5-9 and 12-19 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In claims 1-3, 5-9 and 12-19, the structure of the pyrithione complex is vague and indefinite since it is not clear how the zinc pyrithione is attached to the 2-pyridylthio-N-oxide. According to the disclosure on pages 3 and 4, the zinc or copper pyrithione of the present invention has structural formula shown on page 4. According to compounds of formula (I) of claim 1, variable D represents M(Py) and Py represents 2-pyridylthio-N-oxide. However, according to claims 3 and 8, variable D represents zinc pyrithione and not 2-pyridylthio-N-oxide. Therefore, it is very confusing and actual intent is not clear. The applicants are suggested to include the structural formula of the elected group in the claims showing how the zinc pyrithione is attached to the 2-pyridylthio-N-oxide.

5. Claims 1, 2, 5-7, 9 and 12-17 are objected for containing non-elected subject matter.
6. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Charanjit S. Aulakh whose telephone number is (571)272-0678. The examiner can normally be reached on Monday through Friday, 8:30 A.M. to 5:00 P.M..
